Pediatrician- Green Bay Wisconsin

Bellin Health System is currently seeking board-eligible/board certified pediatric physician to become a partner in our Bellin Medical Group. Here is what is special about our opportunity:

- Bellin Medical Group and Bellin Health System have a large number of physicians involved in committees and leadership roles. The core of the health system is Bellin Medical Group, a group of 80+ providers to include family practice, internal medicine & pediatrics. The system also includes access to a full complement of specialty partners.
- A hardworking group, highly respected in the community with income well above national averages.
- Strong emphasis on lifestyle and family. There is extensive on-call support, including RN telephone triage as well as optional pediatric hospitalist services.
- Nationally-recognized health system is cutting edge. The hospital is a Top 100 Hospital and Bellin Health is a core member of the Institute for Healthcare Improvement. We are currently rolling out a number of cutting-edge patient care initiatives. We have already achieved other milestones such as Advanced Access. There is ample opportunity for physicians to be involved in development of these healthcare delivery system improvements that are of interest.
- A great location. The Green Bay area is well known for its excellent recreational opportunities, excellent school system, lots of family activities, Division 1 basketball and, of course, our NFL football team. The Bellin 10K Run, held each June, is one of the largest road races in the United States.
- Team Chemistry. A stable group of physicians who have great fun interacting both professionally in the office setting as well as in social settings and family settings.
- State-of-the-Art Facilities. Visit our Website

Community, Facility, & Organization

Physician Partners, Ltd. (PPL) is a Physician Hospital Organization located in Green Bay, Wisconsin. We have created an organized structure for independent physicians and Bellin Health to join forces and vigorously compete for dominant marketshare in our region. Members share an independent entrepreneurial spirit, and are working together as a team to demonstrate our value to our patients, employers, communities, and payers.

Green Bay, the oldest settlement in the Midwest, has a rich culture and history. Recognized as the hub of Northeastern Wisconsin, it sits on the Southern shores of the waters of Green Bay, 100 miles from Milwaukee and 200 miles from Chicago.

Greater Green Bay is a regional center for healthcare services, transportation, higher education, broadcast communications, as well as all types of service, retail, and manufacturing activity in Northeastern Wisconsin.

With a population of approximately 102,000, Green Bay has all the advantages of a big city, while retaining the charm of a safe, family-oriented community.

- Brown County has a population of 230,000, and a regional referral population of 500,000+
- 1999 All-America City
- Top 10 safest cities (with population over 100,000)
- Top 30 kid-friendly cities in the U.S. by Zero Population Growth
- Top 50 Reader's Digest Best Places to Raise a Family
- Top 125 Best Places to Live by Money

Recreational activities are plentiful in any season. Boating and fishing on one of the many area rivers, the bay of Green Bay, or Lake Michigan are popular activities during the warmer months for the sports enthusiast. Nature lovers can take advantage of the scenic countryside by hiking, bicycling, or camping. In the winter months continue to enjoy outside recreation by sledding, cross-country or downhill skiing, or if you prefer, snowmobiling along one of the many trails that crisscross the countryside. The region boasts many resorts that attract visitors from neighboring states.

Sports fans have plenty of opportunity to watch professional games, including Green Bay Packers football, Timber Rattlers minor league base-ball, the Green Bay Bombers indoor football, and the Green Bay Gamblers hockey.

Green Bay is also home to a world-class performing arts center, two symphony orchestras, comedy clubs, museums, zoos, and a wildlife sanctuary. The University of Wisconsin - Green Bay and St. Norbert's college add to the local amenities.
